

NO 63

The Daily News

THIS AND THAT.

How TO GET RICH.—The Rev. Mr. Dar-lee, in his interesting history of Williams College, recently issued by Messrs. Williams & Co., gives the following account of the very humble commencement of the fine fortune accumulated by Nathan Jackson, Esq., of New York, one of the benefactors of the institution :

in the Summer of 1792, while residing in Stockholm, Barnabas B-dwell, a son of the first clergyman in Tyngsboro, was a law student in that place. He kept a horse, and he told young Jackson if he would catch his horse for him and turn him out, he might have it to ride home to keep Thanksgiving. He readily accepted the offer and fulfilled his part of the contract. The day before Thanksgiving, as he was mounted on his horse ready to start for home, Mr. Bidwell said Nathan, have

Yes, sir, I have three ninepenny pieces, and Mr. Bidwell then handed him a silver dollar. This was the first dollar he had ever had. And what did he do with it? He did not use it to see snows, nor for rum, nor brandy, nor cigars, nor tobacco. But he bought a sheep with it, and put out that sheep to double once in four years, and then on letting out his sheep for forty years. In the year 1832 his flock amounted to and sixty-four sheep; and he then sold them for ninety hundred and ninety-dollars. He knew where he could invest this money to good advantage. Up in lots in New York had recently been eyed, and were now for sale at a low price. He ascertained that a large number were to be sold at auction. He attended the sale and purchased ten lots for two hundred and fifty dollars each. These lots in New York were sold for twelve thousand dollars. Jackson H. H., which he erected at Columbia College for the use of the Natural History Society, and which with its fixtures cost him near five thousand dollars, was worth only about one half of his Bidwell

Naturalized Citizen in Trouble in France.

Case of great interest has recently been brought before one of the tribunals of the Department of the Lower Rhine. A native of the province, Michael Zeiter by name, who, in early youth, of America, and subsequently became an adopted citizen of the United States. Zeiter's name was on the registry of the conscription, and as he refused to serve, he was condemned, and liable to seizure on his return to France. He went back to his native province and was imprisoned. An appeal in the case was made to the Minister of the Interior, who immediately addressed a circular, and demanded his release.

MODE OF MAKING CURRENT JEL-classes looking sympa, instead and elastic feeling. It has been by several lady friends, in argument we have full confidence, is, therefore, we read on :

 the juice of the currant; strain them. Put it in a copper or brass bowl until the steam ceases to without taking the juice off the one pound of well refined sugar of juice; and as soon as the fully dissolved - which will be in a minute - take it off and pour vessels prepared to receive it. retains the beautiful crimson e currant much better than the Gardener's Monthly.

ALB.—"The elder Adams was a worthy cobbler."

Perhaps owing to the very fact that the parentage that the elder man what he was. I have never writing story in print, but it descended to me by oral tradition. I have been told my great grandfather—pious Deacon Adams, of Braintree," himself:

On, during a temporary absence, to cutting out the "uppers" for shoes; but—like the Chinaman, finding a pair of breeches from a man who had been killed and was carried by some prudent captain, he copied the patches which his son-in-law in the seat of his old ones—lished every "upper" he the three-cornered hole by aters had, hung on their acid the Deacon, "I couldn't ker of him, so I put him to

---

STORY OF RHODE ISLAND.-- Tribune concludes a long second volume of this work ordially congratulate Mr. successful completion of a in pretension, and so adentation, with such a deep theological research, and fortable accession to

...with the early times of an
...
...the editors of the
...libel in an article print-July. The damages are

